As the fall season advances the car famine will increase if the freigh ovement of the past years is a guide Freight agents have literally no time to solicit business by shading rates, and would have no cars to transport it if they could so ting in this locality is the joint tariff sheet recently issued by the Cleveland freight agents. It quotes rates to every junction in Central Traffic association territory. The old well-worn excuse that a cut in rates was a clerical mistake, cannot be pleaded now.

The Orchestra at Black'...

for every agent has the correct rate in

Black's opera house orchestra, under the marked improvement over last year that theater-goers are noticing and commenting on the fact. Mr. Brain, both in theory and practice, is one of Springfield's most thor-ough musicians, and he is doing splendid work in the leader's chair this year. The music at Black's this year is quite a feature of the performace, and the orchestra gives the audieuce the latest popular music. Last night one of the popular numbers played which is such a craze in the east. It was excellently done. The orchestra was rein-forced last night by the piano, at which Mr. Charles Bauer, jr., presided with ex-
